

Summer Kindness Series

FAQ

How much does this cost? It's free! Sign up at www.classdojo.com/summer-kindness-series to receive email alerts when new activities are ready!

What's the age range for this series? Activities have been tailored for kids aged 6-10.

Is this associated with my child's school and will their teacher see if they participate or not? The Summer Kindness Series is from ClassDojo and is not associated with your school, teacher, or classroom. The only way your child's teacher will know you've participated is if you tell them and spread the kindness :)

If I miss one week, can I still find the activities? Yes! Activities come out week by week to help build the kindness "habit," but you won't lose the good stuff. Activities from prior weeks can be accessed anytime.

Do I have to do all the activities to build up the "kindness habit?" You'd be a superstar if you did! There are many ways to form new habits. The Summer Kindness Series is about having fun and getting inspired with some great ideas.

Do I need to download the ClassDojo app to access The Summer Kindness Series? No app download is necessary. But, those who have it will also get weekly updates that way too, so it can be handy :)

Who is Dr. Michele Borba? Michele Borba, Ed.D., is an internationally renowned educational psychologist; a former classroom teacher; and an expert in parenting, bullying, and character development. Learn more at www.micheleborba.com.

What happens after August 16 when the series ends? The weekly reminders will stop and 99 percent of the series content and activities will remain live on the website to access anytime. .

What happened to the Mojo videos? After Aug 23, the videos on empathy and mindfulness can be accessed at for free at ideas.classdojo.com when you login to your ClassDojo account. Creating an account is FREE for teachers, parents, school leaders and students.

