

ClassDojo for Districts: FAQ for teachers and school leaders

What is ClassDojo for Districts?

ClassDojo for Districts is a free way to bring families, teachers, and schools together—without any extra effort on your part. When your district joins, every parent is automatically connected, so communication is smooth and simple.

How does it make my life easier as a teacher or school leader?

- ✓ No more chasing parents
Families are instantly connected, so you don't have to send reminders.
- ✓ One app for everything
Announcements, reminders, points, and updates are all in one place.
- ✓ Easy login
Single sign-on (SSO) keeps things simple and secure.
- ✓ Automatic rostering
Your student lists are updated for you, so you're always ready to go.
- ✓ Training and support
Expert-led professional development and training from our team to help you get the most out of ClassDojo.
- ✓ Less paperwork
Class lists sync automatically with your school's student system and update nightly.
- ✓ Automatic translation
Messages are translated into 130+ languages, making sure every family stays in the loop.

Join some of the nation's largest districts and the over 45M+ families who already use ClassDojo.

ClassDojo

Does ClassDojo sell students' data?

Absolutely not. We never share student data with advertisers, marketers, or anyone else. Everything shared on ClassDojo—from classroom updates to school announcements—stays completely private.

Is it safe and private?

Yes. We take privacy and security seriously. ClassDojo follows strict safety standards and complies with the three big student privacy laws (COPPA, FERPA, and GDPR). We keep every student's information completely safe at all times.

How do parents connect?

They're added automatically when your district partners with ClassDojo. No more sending links or chasing down sign-ups—parents will receive updates from you without you having to do a thing.

What if parents speak different languages?

No problem. Messages are automatically translated into 130+ languages, so every family can understand and stay involved—without any extra work for you.

Can I still use ClassDojo to reinforce positive behavior?

Absolutely! You can use class and school points to reinforce positive behavior and create consistency across your whole district.

Unparalleled security and district oversight

Join some of the nation's largest districts and the over 45M+ families who already use ClassDojo.

Does it work for middle and high schools too?

Yes! There are special modes designed for older students with a more age-appropriate look and feel, plus automatic updates for classes, students, and teachers.

What's the biggest benefit for me as a teacher or school leader?

Less time chasing parents, more time teaching. Plus, our district partners get access to expert-led professional development and training, so you can make the most of everything ClassDojo has to offer.

Is it really free?

Yes! ClassDojo is always free for teachers, schools, and now districts. Families can choose an optional paid subscription for added extras (about 5% do), and we also offer DojoTutor, a paid online tutoring program for kids Pre-K to 9th grade.

How do I get started?

Your district admin takes care of setup, so you can keep using ClassDojo as usual—just with more support. If you're excited about bringing your whole community together, share classdojo.com/districts with your district leaders, and we'll handle the rest.

Join some of the nation's largest districts and the over 45M+ families who already use ClassDojo.

