

ClassDojo is better than ever this back to school, with new features you won’t want to miss.

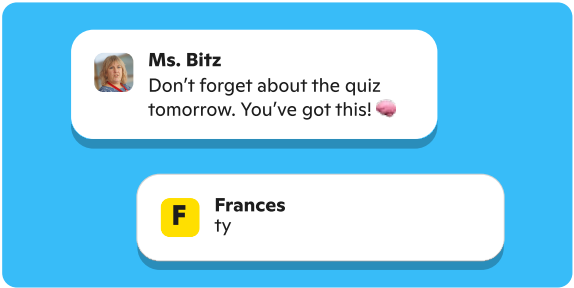

Speak every family’s language

Messages are now automatically translated in 190+ languages, so every family stays in the loop.

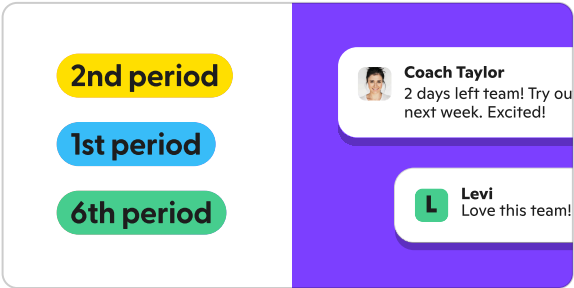

Teacher-student messaging (13+)

Create beautiful class updates and newsletters with Canva right inside ClassDojo – no new accounts or switching tabs.

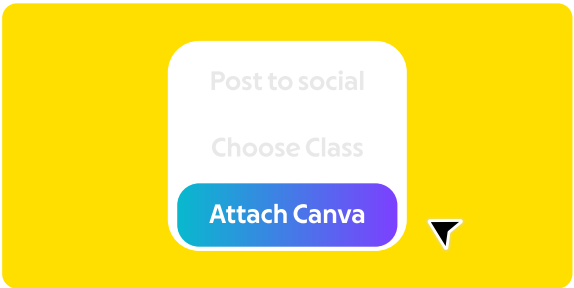

Post to multiple classes at once

New multi-class story posts make it easy to share one update across every class at once – no more copying and pasting.

Newsletters they’ll actually read

Available for middle and high school in eligible rostered schools. No personal numbers, with all conversations in a safe, school-controlled channel.
